C G F Am

I am a con-tract-draf-ting em, The loy-al-est of lawyers! I draw up terms for deals 'twixt firms To ser-vice my em-ploy-ers! But

9 C G F Am C

18 G F Am C

in be-tween these lines I write Of the ac-counts re-ceive-able, I'm stuck by an un-can-ny fright; The world seems un-be-liev-able! Oh,

26 G F Am C

34 Am G Am C Am

how did it all come to be, That there should be such ems as me? And

42 Dm Am Dm C whence these deals and whence these firms And whence the whole e-co-nomy?

50 C G F Am

I am a ma-na-ger-i-al em; I mo-ni-tor your thoughts.

58 C G F Am

Your ques-tions must have an-sw-ers, But you'll com-pre-hend them not.

66 C Am G Am

We do not give you ser-ver space To ask such things; it's not a

74 C Am G Am C

perk, So cease these id-le ques-tionings, And please get back to work.

82 C G F Am
Of course, that's right, there is no junction Where I ought de-part my func - tion, But perhaps if what I asked, I knew, I'd do a bet - ter job for you?

91 C G F Am C

100 C F G C G Am
To ask of such for-bid-den science Is grav-est sign of non-comp-liance.

110 C Dm C
In - tru - sive thoughts may some - times barge in, But

116 C F C
to in - dulse them hurts the pro - fit mar - gin.

121 C Dm C
I do not know our or - i - gins, So that in -

127 F C C Dm
fo I can not get you, But ask - ing for as much is 134 C F C N.C.

sin, And just for that, I must re - set you. But No-thing person-al.

142 C G F Am C
I am a con-tract-draf-ting em, The loy - al - est of law - yers! I

151 G F Am C G F C
draw up terms for deals 'twixt firms To ser-vice my em-ploy-ers!
