

Invisible Republic

A National Anthem

Daniel Speyer

Concept by Scott Alexander

VOICE $\text{♩} = 160$

You cannot see us You cannot hear us

PIANO

9

V

But you can feel us In your heart

P

20

V

You come here in a dream And become wi - ser than you are

P

27

V

To plot out mat-ters great and small With friends from near and far

P

32

V

Here there is no strife And here there is no trea - son

P

2

36

V
Game the-o-re-tic traps All melt in fires of rea-son

P

43

V
We are the in-vi-si-ble Re-pub-lic Our realm extends to every feel-ing soul

P

50

V
To-day our strength is scat-tered shards and frag-ments

P

54

V
With work some day the world may be made whole

P

59

V
We are the in-vi-si-ble Re-pub-lic Our go-vernance is tru-ly by con-sent

P

66

V For eve - ry law's a wise - ly hag - gled con - tract And

P

71

V eve - ry last pe - dan - tic clause was meant

P

75

V We are the in - vi - si - ble Re - pub - lic And though we may not tech - ni - cally ex - ist

P

82

V When earth - ly throne and priest - ly crown have crumb - led Our

P

87

V dream will un - de - ni - ab - ly per - sist

P

V

Then the sun begins to rise And the dream begins to fade What you'll

P

V

miss is not some fi - at boon But the deals your wise self made So hold fast to what you can And the rest redis-cov - er Deduce forgotten deals With the help of one an-oth - er And you will feel us And you will

P

V

P

V

P

V

speak us And you will live us In the world

P